Wednesday 18th October

This is part of a series of monthly interviews/conversations with Norfolk based artists working in a diverse range of fields and disciplines, discussing their work, inspiration, and influences, along with their creative processes; how and why they each became artists; how they make what they make, as well as where, when and why they make it; the importance of creativity and the arts, for them personally and professionally, as well as for society more generally; and reflecting upon life and living in Norfolk.

Each Forum lasts about an hour, after which there will be time for questions.

Arrive at 6.30pm, when the bar will be open, for a prompt 7.00pm start
